

Chapter 3 - Networking and Group Computing

Table of Contents

Networking

Introduction

- Network Applications for the Practice of Law
- History of Networks
- Client/Server Networking
- Peer-to-Peer Networking
- Web Based Networking - Internet, Intranets and Extranets
- Remote Access
- Network Components
- Network Cost
- Network Internet Resource Sites
- Disaster Recovery
- Security
- Virus
- Sniffers and Spoofers
- Encryption
- Conclusion

Workgroup Computing - The Next Logical Step

Introduction

- Strategic Workgroup Legal Applications
- Defining Workgroup Computing Systems
- Groupware Computer Applications
- E-Mail - Killer Application

- Managing E-Mail
- Firm E-mail Policies
- E-mail Etiquette & Tips

Universal Inbox

Message and Database Workgroup Computing Platforms

The Infrastructure for Workgroup Computing

Workgroup Computing and the Internet

Portals

Intranets and Extranets

Extranet Depositories

Lotus Notes, Microsoft Exchange, Intranets and Extranets

Application Service Provider (ASP)

Knowledge Management

Conclusion